PANCAKE DAY WRAP-UP, "Ask Doug" Abilene Country Club, Noon, June 9

Every member needs to attend Pancake Wrap-up Day. Henry McGinty will have an estimate of how much money was made. Many words of thanks to everyone from those who sold tickets to those who loaded the equipment Sunday morning after a great day of flipping pancakes and bidding on silent auction items. Who will get the Golden Wrench award? Who sold the most tickets? How much did the silent auction bring in? Please come to help celebrate our success. There will be a special featured edition of "Ask, Doug." Doug Williamson, a native Abilenian, is director of niche products and publications at the Abilene Reporter-News. He has been with the newspaper since 1985. Doug graduated from CHS and Baylor University. He taught journalism, photography, broadcasting and debate at Waco High School for 3 years before joining the Waco Tribune-Herald in 1976. (Continued Page 4)

Spiritual Aims Message...by Randy Williams

When I was in elementary school I was one of those kids who asked a lot of questions. My hand would go up and groans could be heard all around the room. Funny, it really never fazed me. Truth is, those questions were on the minds of a lot of other kids who just wouldn't risk themselves to ask.

An African proverb states, "The one who asks questions doesn't lose his way." Think about David. He asked plenty of questions in the Psalms. He was seeking God's guidance for the way he should go. Like, "O Lord, how long?" (6:3), a question of eagerness to see God's plan accomplished. Or, "What is man that You are mindful of him?" (8:4), a question of awe that God even cares about sinful man.

David had discovered what it was like to lose his way when he left God out and followed his own sinful path. But he was a man in search of godliness so he probed God's mind about difficult things.

Do you want to "Change the World, One Child at a Time?" Then be like David. Those questions, you have them. Keep asking. Then, through faith in God's Word and the work of the Holy Spirit, listen as He leads you in His way.

- H.B. Terry
